A note from Miss McNicholas

Good afternoon,

Your children have been involved in various discussions and work this week in relation to Remembrance Sunday. Remembrance Sunday is held on the second Sunday of November and this year it will take place on this coming Sunday, November 12th. Besides the two-minute silence to acknowledge the fallen soldiers of WWI, WWII and the 12,000 Brits who have died in combat since 1945, a National Service of Remembrance is held at the The Cenotaph in Whitehall in London on Sunday.

Today, our KS2 children held a ceremony in our prayer garden to remember those fallen soldiers and they have produced the most wonderful poppy display. Each pupil laid an individual stone to construct the poppy, as the stone was laid they said the name of one of our local soldiers who lost their lives in the war. Please feel free to visit our prayer garden and spend some time praying for your loved ones who are no longer with you.

Have a great weekend everyone.

Christmas Orders...

Yesterday, the children brought home the sample copy of their design for Christmas mugs, cards, tea towels, gift tags and eco-bags. We have received so many orders already...thank you. They should be with us before the end of November.

Monday morning will be the final chance for any further orders to be placed. Please send in your order form, along with FULL PAYMENT, no later than Monday morning. We will not be able to place any more orders after Monday. If you have any questions or queries, please call school and ask to speak with Mrs Dye. Thank you.

SPOTACULAR

Friday 17th November

The Big Spotacular is back! Be spotty for the day, spotty costume, face or even spots drawn on an old T-shirt. No need to go to any expense, a bright T-shirt will do too. For those who want to get creative there are lots of ideas online at www.bbcchildreninneed.co.uk
